On 01/08/25 at around 16:00 hours, I Trae Auburn Payne was Trying to pump gas at the BP on the Corner of Macon Rd. @ Waring St. when Memphis Police Department tried to Make a traffic stop, I was already pulling away from the pump when two MPD Cars attempted to block me in, Causing my Truck to hit their cars. I feared for my life and fled towards my buddies Shop. My Truck malfunctioned at the intersection of Warford @ Chelsea Ave. Still in fear for my life I exited the vehicle, ran maybe 10 feet before I Surrender and laid face down, Hands behind my back, Letting officers know I am not resisting their orders. Multiple officers then surrounded me while one kneed me in my back, Put Handcuffs on me. After being in handcuffs another officer then ran to me, while still laying down in Handcuffs, Punched me in my face then Slammed my face into the pavement Causing my Mouth, and nose to hit the ground and break my front teeth and Cause Heavy bleeding to my Nose, Lips, and Gums. from there i was Transported From the Scene to the hospital (Medical Regional Center) because of the lacerations caused by the officers who brutality punched, Dragged and Kneed me while in handcuffs. I was in fear for my life the entire time i was being punched and dragged. I had a panic attack and have had trauma (mental) due to the incident. I am. Scared of law enforcement officers and hope I dont ever have to come in contact with them again. They beat me and i was not resisting while already detained. I understand I was wrong for running, so I surrendered and laid on the ground once in handcuffs I thought it was over but it was only the beginning of a bad dream I thought would never exist in my entire life. On, March 24th at my preliminary hearing officer verbally admitted to punching me in my mouth while he was under oath in General Sessions 12. All this happen in the Jurisdiction of Shelby County, Tennessee.
